- Describe (with examples) any work experience related to the specialized experience required by the vacancy announcement. Be explicit about what work you did and what kinds of skills you used in doing it; evaluators of your qualifications cannot read meaning into what you write. Do not assume that the evaluator will understand what work you have done just based on your title, the kind of business you were involved in, or the name of your organization or company.
- Indicate whether we may contact your present and previous employers.
- If you are currently or were formerly employed as a civilian in the Federal Government, indicate the highest grade held.
- If a mandatory selective factor is present in the job announcement, candidates must meet it in order to be given consideration for the position.

MANDATORY SELECTIVE FACTOR EVALUATION PROCEDURES

- A Human Resources Specialist will evaluate your application to determine whether you meet the minimum qualifications (and any mandatory selective factor) specified on the vacancy announcement. All minimally qualified candidates will be referred to the selecting official who will make the final hiring decision.

SPECIAL SELECTION
PRIORITY

- This applies only to current or former career or career conditional Federal employees affected by reduction-in-force (RIF). Review your specific RIF notice about your rights and period of eligibility for special priority selection under the Interagency Career Transition Assistance Plan (ICTAP).
- To receive special selection priority as a Federal employee, you must: (1) apply timely for a specific job announcement with no greater promotion potential than the position from which you have been or are being separated; (2) occupy or be displaced from a position in the same local commuting area of the vacancy for which you are requesting priority consideration; (3) have a current (or last) performance rating of record of at least fully successful; and (4) determined to be well-qualified as a displaced Federal employee for the SEC position.
- If you meet the SEC's well-qualified criterion, your application will be referred to the selecting official before any other qualified candidate inside or outside the Federal Government.
